

IGF SUMMARY RESULTS FRAMEWORK

Goal: Contribute to enhance chambers of commerce and business membership associations' capacity through selected demand-driven services and through advocacy aimed at creating a better business environment.

Outcome 1.1

Chambers of commerce and business membership associations made operational adjustments to provide resources and tools to SMEs to help them navigate the economic shock.

Outcome 1.2

Chambers of commerce and business membership associations brought attention on the devastating impact of COVID-19 on SMEs and their employees

Outcome 3.1

At the end of the project, key elements of operational capacity have been enhanced, service delivery and governance improved.

Outcome 3.2

At the end of the project, chambers of commerce and business membership associations have expanded their capacity to finance themselves by a mix of membership dues, service fees, and subsidies from government or donors.

Outcome 3.3

At the end of the project, chambers of commerce and business membership associations have increased their membership, put in place a committed and visionary leadership, established a democratic and efficient governance structure, set up sufficient financial, personnel and physical resources, and high-quality advocacy service.

Outcome 3.4

Built capabilities to support: trade and market development, training, advice and consulting, information and networking, office facilities and infrastructure services, joint activities with partners. to finance themselves by a mix of membership dues, service fees, and subsidies from government or donors.

Objective 1

Mitigating the effects of COVID 19 on chambers of commerce and business membership associations and prepare as the crisis recede to support economic activity that is coherent with a green and just transition and leaving no one behind.

Objective 3

Strengthen chambers of commerce and business membership associations' to improve services in order to provide value to existing and potential members.

Objective 2

Strengthen chambers of commerce and business membership associations' engagement to influence the policy-making process and enhance the role of women in business leadership.

Objective 4

Support chambers of commerce and business membership associations create a stronger business information services to improve trade, employment, economic development and quality of life.

Outcome 2.1

At the end of the project, public private dialogues are more inclusive, including for women in business.

Outcome 2.2

Elevated women voice and leadership in decision making.

Outcome 2.3

Chambers of commerce and business membership associations' capacities to engage in public consultation processes is enhanced particularly in relation to engagement in policy dialogues.

Outcome 2.4

At the end of the project, chambers of commerce and business membership associations' capacities, participation and strategic influence in formal business and economic policy processes have increased.

Outcome 4.1

At the end of the project, chambers of commerce and business membership associations register recognition for performance and better collaboration with stakeholders.

Outcome 4.2

Chambers of commerce and business membership associations use communication media efficiently for acquiring political clout and thus influencing the political decision-making process.

Outcome 4.3

Chambers of commerce and business membership associations capacities is enhanced to prepare expert position papers and media events.